ATHENS

The Athens Public International Law Center (Athens PIL) was founded in July 2015. It is an academic institution that forms part of the Faculty of Law of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. The mission of Athens PIL is to be a leading research center committed to the study and promotion of international law.

The Center's objectives are: to contribute to the promotion of international law through teaching, research and other scientific events; to provide an environment that brings together students, researchers and academics interested in international law from all over the world; to play a pivotal role in the development of international law through strong cooperation and partnership with other academic institutions or research centers, international organizations and other scientific and social organizations.

The Center's key activities include expert seminars and meetings on carefully selected topics of international law; a bibliographical center with emphasis on international law related research activities and publications; bilateral and multilateral co-operation with other academic institutions or research centers; organisation of conferences on topical issues of international law and national and international events; training and education seminars and programmes.

The European Law Students' Association (ELSA) is an international, independent, non-profit and non-political Union, addressed to law students, trainees and young lawyers. The European Union Youth Legal Athens (ELSA Athens) is the local branch of ELSA in Athens and is active at the Law School of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens.

The ELSA Athens was founded in 2002 as a legal person under associative form. Today it accounts around 200 members. ELSA Athens provides Athens law School students and young lawyers the opportunity to participate in academic activities, seminars, conferences, and internship programs abroad (through the Students' Trainee Exchange Programme – STEP) and thus to interact with students and practitioners around Europe and to experience different legal systems and cultures.

The aim is to promote critical dialogue and scientific cooperation, while equipping participants with skills valuable for a professional life in an international environment and contributing to the vision of ELSA: a just world with respect for human rights and cultural diversity!

Message from the Director of the Athens Public International Law Center (Athens PIL)

In my capacity as Director of the Athens Public International Law Center (Athens PIL), an academic institution that forms part of the School of Law of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, I am delighted to welcome you to the Summer Law School on International Investment Law 2019, co-organized by ELSA Athens and Athens PIL. For a fourth consecutive year, the Summer Law School on International Investment Law brings together scholars and practitioners and students from all over the world for an intensive, one-week, academic programme on international investment law and arbitration.

This year in particular, we are proud to have 68 students from 29 different countries as participants in our Summer Law School which takes place for the second consecutive time under the aegis of the EODID Athens Mediation & Arbitration Organization, and includes a Skills Training Workshop in cooperation with Young ICCA. I extend a warm thanks to our partner, ELSA Athens, the members of the Organizing Committee, the sponsors, the Summer Law School's Faculty, and everyone else involved. We are confident that the Summer Law School on International Investment Law 2019 will be an opportunity for young law students, scholars and practitioners from all around the globe to meet in beautiful Athens, engage in productive exchange of ideas on international investment law and take advantage of valuable networking opportunities.

Message from the Academic Supervisor of the Summer Law School on International Investment Law

We are delighted to greet you for the Summer Law School on International Investment Law 2019, taking place in Athens for a fourth consecutive year. The Summer Law School on International Investment Law is co-organized since 2016 by ELSA Athens and the Athens Public International Law Center (Athens PIL), with a view to provide participating students from all over the world with a comprehensive understanding of international investment law, as well as the capacity to locate and compare the various approaches taken by arbitral tribunals and understand the different aspects and controversies of the discipline. Accordingly, we are proud to welcome this year 68 students from 29 different countries for the Summer Law School on International Investment Law.

Based on previous years' success, we continue to invest heavily on the Summer Law School's academic programme and are thus more than proud to host renowned scholars and practitioners who will guide participants through the fascinating universe of international investment law. To further the educational objectives of the project, this year the Law School on International Investment Law takes place under the aegis of the EODID Athens Mediation & Arbitration Organization, and includes a Skills Training Workshop in cooperation with Young ICCA.

Last, but definitely not least, let me cordially thank our partner, ELSA Athens, the members of the Organizing Committee, the sponsors, the Summer Law School's Faculty, every person involved this year, and of course, each one of the participants. I hope to meet each of you personally during the course of this fascinating week of intense lectures and enjoyable social events.

He has widely published on international and European law (including "International Economic Law, 4th edition, Thomson Reuters, forthcoming in 2019) and regularly advises Governments, International Organizations, NGOs and private clients and has represented them before various domestic and international courts and arbitral tribunals. He is on the permanent roster of panelists of the WTO and ICSID. He is the President of the Swiss Chapter of the International Law Association (ILA) and an editor of the European Yearbook of International Economic Law (EYIEL).

Aikaterini Tsampi

Assistant Professor of International Law, University of Groningen

Dr. Aikaterini [Katerina] Tsampi is Assistant Professor of International Law at the University of Groningen (Department of Transboundary Legal Studies), the Netherlands. She was awarded, in 2017, a PhD in Human Rights from the University of Strasbourg, France. Her monograph "Le principe de séparation des pouvoirs dans la jurisprudence de la Cour européenne des droits de l'homme" was published by Pedone, Paris, Publications de la Fondation Maragkopoulos pour les droits de l'homme, Serie no 21, 2019. She completed LLM studies in International Human Rights Law and IHL at the Panthéon-Assas University Paris II and in Specialised Public Law at the Universities of Bordeaux IV and Athens. From 2013 until 2017, she was employed as Legal Officer at the Greek National Commission for Human Rights, the National Human Rights Institution (NHRI) of Greece. She has been involved in several human rights projects and activities, as an independent researcher, and she is a trainer, qualified through the CoE HELP program. She is a qualified lawyer at the Rhodes Bar Association. She has received several scholarships (Ile-de-France-"Bourse d'excellence", Paris, CFF Greece).

Antonios Tzanakopoulos

Associate Professor of Public International Law, University of Oxford; Door Tenant, Three Stone Chambers; Secretary General, International Law Association (ILA)

Antonios is Associate Professor of Public International Law at the Faculty of Law and Fellow in Law at St Anne's College. He has taught as a visitor at the Universities of Paris (Paris X – Nanterre), Angers, London (King's College), Athens (National and Kapodistrian), at the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC) in Herzliya, and at the China University of Political Science and Law in Beijing. He was previously lecturer in international law at University College London and at the University of Glasgow. Antonios has also delivered a special course at the Xiamen Academy of International Law in 2017 and has been invited by the Curatorium of The Hague Academy of International Law to serve as Director of Studies in 2021.

Antonios studied law in Athens, New York, and Oxford, during which time he also worked as a Researcher for the Hellenic Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Athens and New York and for the UN Office in Geneva, and as a Graduate Teaching Assistant for the Faculty of Law at Oxford.

Antonios is a general international lawyer and has published in a number of areas reflecting his varied research interests. His books include Disobeying the Security Council (OUP 2011, re-issued in paperback with a new introduction 2013); The Settlement of International Disputes (Hart 2012, co-edited with CJ Tams); The UN Convention on Jurisdictional Immunities of States and their Property (OUP 2013, edited by R O'Keefe and CJ Tams, ass't ed) and the Research Handbook on the Law of Treaties (Elgar 2014, co-edited with CJ Tams and A Zimmermann, and re-issued in paperback 2016). He has also published in the fields of the law of the sea, international investment law, and others.

Antonios regularly provides advice to states, international organizations, and private entities on matters of public international law from Three Stone Chambers in Lincoln's Inn. He has acted as counsel, advisor, or assistant to counsel, and has provided expert opinions in a number of cases before international and domestic courts and tribunals, including the International Court of Justice, EU courts, the European Court of Human Rights, ad hoc and ICSID arbitral tribunals, and the High Court of England and Wales. He has also provided training in international law to domestic judges, as well as diplomats, military officers, and other government officials.

Antonios is the Secretary-General of the International Law Association and the Joint Secretary of its British Branch; and member of the editorial board of Oxford Reports on International Law in Domestic Courts. He served as the Co-Rapporteur of the ILA Study Group on Principles of Engagement of Domestic Courts with International Law (2011-2016), and was contributing editor of EJIL: Talk! (the blog of the European Journal of International Law) 2014-2016.

This year's edition of the SELS Athens on International Investment Law will also feature a skills training session organised by Young ICCA, the young branch of ICCA, the International Council for Commercial Arbitration, which provides skills training, networking and academic opportunities to arbitration students, young practitioners and academics. Established in 2010, Young ICCA counts today over 6,000 members from all 5 continents. Joining Young ICCA is free and the registration form can be easily completed online. Young ICCA's activities include organizing skills training workshops focused on practical aspects of international arbitration, offering a Mentoring Programme, which provides a unique platform for young professionals to connect with and learn from the experience of more senior members of the arbitration community, providing scholarships for attending the LLM programmes in international arbitration at the University of Miami, MIDS in Geneva and Tsinghua Law School in Beijing and maintaining a blog where its members can submit articles for publication. For more information about Young ICCA and its activities, please visit its website at www.arbitrationicca.org/YoungICCA/

The skills training session will take place on Wednesday 22 August 2018, and will be animated by Mr. Panagiotis Chalkias (Associate, White & Case S.A., Geneva / Young ICCA Co-Chair) and Ms. Nhu-Hoang Tran Thang (Associate, LALIVE, Geneva / Young ICCA Advisory Board Member). They will share their practical insight and tips on how to draft a request for arbitration and an answer to the request for arbitration.

Panagiotis Chalkias

Associate, White & Case S.A. (Geneva)

Panagiotis Chalkias is an associate in the International Arbitration Group of the Geneva office of White & Case.

Panagiotis' practice encompasses international commercial and investment arbitration cases conducted under all major institutional arbitration rules. His experience includes representing clients in a wide range of industries including construction, joint ventures, telecommunications, oil & gas and distribution. Prior to joining White & Case, Panagiotis worked as an associate at an international arbitration boutique in Brussels, as legal consultant at the World Intellectual Property Organization Arbitration and Mediation Center in Geneva and as a trainee lawyer at Nikolaos Chalkias & Associates in Athens.

The current Co-Chair of Young ICCA (Young International Council for Commercial Arbitration), Panagiotis regularly speaks and publishes in the field of international arbitration. He serves as arbitrator for the FDI Moot and the Vis Moot competitions.

JAN KUNDRATA

I am 23 years old and I am a fourth-year student of Law and Legal Science at Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic. I am interested in European and International law, apart from law I am also interested in economics.

02

MARTIN NOVOTNÝ

I am currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Law at Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic. This autumn I am beginning the last year of my studies, during which I have found an interest in commercial and criminal law.

03

SOPHIE- AMALIE VANGUE

I live in Denmark, in Copenhagen, and have just finished my second year in law school. I have been a member in my local ELSA group in Odense, and have the last year been VP for The Student Trainee Exchange Programme in Odense. I look forward to meet you all this summer!

04

CTIBOR JASEK

I am studying at the Faculty of Law in Brno, Czech Republic. As I am investing on stock exchange myself, I am thrilled to also learn more about legal aspects of it.

05

PETER GIETL

I'm doing a French and German double degree in law with Humboldt Universität zu Berlin and Université Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas. With a specialization in the fields of EU law and French corporate law I just finished the third year of the French bachelor. Starting in October, I will pursue the Master 1 in international law with a specialization in international private law at Assas before returning to Berlin to prepare for the German state exam. Dedicated to international exchange, I attended the MUN conference in Prague and the Harvard World MUN in Madrid 2019. During the last year of high school I was a UK German youth ambassador.

06

LÉNA KIM

I am French, and I am currently working in a law firm specialized in international arbitration. I graduated last year with a Master in international and European Law from the University of Angers (France). During my Master, I had the opportunity to participate in the Charles Rousseau Moot Court in 2018. I also have participated in the summer school of the Xiamen Academy of International law in China, where I have made very good friends in the field, from all over the world. After this experience, I had the opportunity to intern in an international arbitration boutique based in Paris, where I currently work as a paralegal. During my studies, I have developed a strong interest for the law of the sea. This is why I am planning to start a PhD thesis in September in the fields of investment law and international law of the sea. I am looking forward to this experience in Athens!

NIA BELEZHKOVA

I am from Bulgaria, and I'm currently study law in King's College London.

08

ROMAN VYMAZAL

Roman is a law student at Masaryk University in the Czech Republic, who will have, by the time you are reading this, completed the 4th year of his Masters, and hopefully recovered from the exam period and the following celebrations. Besides studying law, he holds a Masters degree in Management from Univesity College London, bringing us to a curious thing about him - he actually does not intend to become a lawyer. He leans more towards business, focusing primarily on management consulting and private equity - fields that first spiked his interest in international investment law. In his spare time, Roman loves traveling to dubious destinations, playing a multitude of sports, and meeting new inspiring people that go with it.

STELIYANA ZLATEVA

Steliyana Zlateva has graduated in Bulgaria and currently is a PhD Student. After a year abroad as an Erasmus student at the University of Salzburg, Austria, where she specialized in Private International Law, she also discovered her passion for Alternative Dispute Resolution. Steliyana has participated in the International Academy for Arbitration Law, Paris, France. Currently she focuses her PhD thesis on the procedural State defense against treaty shopping in International Investment Law. Steliyana loves travelling and meeting new people.

VALERIYA BUTYRINA

I am pursuing a Master's degree in "Law of international trade, commerce and economic integration" at the Higher School of Economics, Moscow. The primary spheres of my interest are international commercial arbitration, public international law, investment law and sanctions law. Along with my studying activities I work at the Russian Arbitration Center, one of the permanent arbitral institution in Russia. I eager to broaden my knowledge and meet new people during this long-awaited Summer School in Athens!

11

PEDRO ROGERIO BORGES DE CARVALHO

I am a Brazilian LL.B student and aspiring international lawyer, with a professional background in IT Law. I'm currently in my fifth and last year of studies at the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro. There I founded the Public International Law Litigation Society (PILLS) and under its banner took the University (and Rio), for the first time in their history, to the Jessup Moot and the Nuremberg Moot. After this summer school, I'll head to the University of Edinburgh for an exchange semester before returning home and graduating.

12

OMAR CICERI PIZO

I am from Colombia, but currently I live in Madrid - Spain, actually I am a PhD student in Law at Carlos III University of Madrid, I did a Master in Economics, Regulation and Competition in Public Services at the Barcelona Univerisity (2015-2016), and Master in Public service Law at the Externado de Colombia University (2013-2014).

13

SAFIA TIRICHINE

My name is Safia Tirichine I am 21 years old and I currently study law at the University of Versailles in France. I have always been enthusiastic about discovering new people, and new cultures that is why I love to travel a lot, and I am looking forward to this Athens Summer Law School. Also, I am fluent in 3 different languages. In the future, I plan to specialize in business law or private law.

MARIE SCHEPERS

My name is Marie Schepers, I'm 23 years old and I live in Genk, Belgium. This year I graduate in law at the Catholic University of Leuven. My study focus lays on private and tax law. This autumn I will specialize in tax law at the Fiscale Hogeschool in Brussels. Besides my studies, I'm passionate about music, horseback riding and running. I also love to spend time with friends and family. I'm excited to visit Greece for the first time and this Summer School will be a perfect addition to my summer plans. I've always been enthusiastic about discovering new cultures and places and meeting new people. I'm looking forward to this adventure!

15

ETIENNE LEROY

My name is Etienne Leroy, I am 21 years old. I live in Paris, France. I recently graduated from the Sorbonne Law School at Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne University with a first-year Master's degree in International law. I am interested in investment law and arbitration. I would like to study the links between investments, human rights and economic malfeasances. Besides learning, I like running and movies.

16

AYNUR HUSEYNOVA

Hello to everyone reading this short information about me. My name is Aynur, so I'm the light of the Moon, but I'm not an illusion, just what my name in Azerbaijani stands for. I'm trying hard to survive while studying LLM at Baku State University. I'm a friendly, honest, polite person who is open-minded to new ideas and influences. I am passionate about travelling, reading and listening to the people. Also, I am interested in different cultures, diverse views of people and law in different countries. All the participants of this event including me will be happy to see law students from the Europe in Athens Summer Law School in August. Good luck to everyone.

17

TANIA BELKALEM

My name is Tania, I am a law student at the University of Vienna and in the progress of finishing my Master thesis in theatre, film and media science. During two years, I was a board member of an honorary organization and took part in the Legal Literacy Project, teaching law at schools. While working for one of the largest accounting firms in the Department of Fraud Investigation and Dispute Services I gained professional experience and furthermore discovered my interest in commercial law. This led me to an internship at the Public Prosecutor's Office, where I gained insight into tax- and commercial criminal matters. After attending the United Nations Youth Speak forum and winning the ELSA Negotiation Competition, I started to engage within the fields of mediation and negotiation. This year I participated in the IBA-VIAC Consensual Dispute Resolution Competition where I had the possibility to broaden my knowledge of alternative and consensual dispute resolution and to deepen my presentation and language skills. In my spare time, I love to play the piano and attend contemporary dance classes. I speak German, English, French, and Arabic.

18

ISMAYIL MAHMUDOV

My name is Ismayil. I am 24 years old. I received bachelor of law degree from Baku State University and currently I am a 2nd year Master student at this University. Along with my study in the University, I work as a lawyer in a local state-owned company. During my University years I was always interested in participation and being part of ELSA family, but due to my laziness it did not happen. It is my first participation in the Summer Law School held by ELSA. So, by taking part in Athens Summer Law School I hope to meet progressive young lawyers, make friends from various cultures and enhance my knowledge in the filed of International Investment Law.

19

NURLANA
DÜNYAMALIYEVA

My name is Nurlana and I am 24 years old. I am currently working as a lawyer at a state owned mining company and Vice-President for academic activities at ELSA Lawyers' Society Azerbaijan. Besides that, I am in the network of Young European Ambassadors. My story with ELSA started 5 years ago, and it opened up a new stage in my life full of unforgettable and valuable memories. I am looking forward to this summer school to enhance my knowledge on Investment law, meet new friends, experience one of the most ancient cities of the world and feel the ELSA spirit again.

20

WOLFGANG HUBER

My name is Wolfgang Huber and I'm 24 years old. I'm currently a LL.M candidate at WU Vienna. Due to our globalising world my interest to expand my knowledge in International Investment Law has been awakened. This year's summer school will be a special opportunity for me to satisfy my crave in enlarging legal education and meet fellow students from all over Europe.

21

TEONA CHOLOKAVA

I am a Student of Business Law and European Economy in Vienna, Austria and work as a Project assistant for EU Projects. Furthermore I represent my University as a brand ambassador at career Events. Besides my work and studies I enjoy dancing latin american choreography and traveling around the globe. I regard emotional intelligence and empathy as the most important and crucial mental asset one can have. Looking Forward to spending one entire week with new, motivated, inspiring and open-minded european students.

22

TATIANA GOUDAS

My name is Tatiana Goudas and I am a fourth year undergraduate student at the Department of Mathematics of the University of Patras. I aim to take advantage of the tools my current studies can provide me in order to pursue further studies in the field of International Economic Relations. That is why most of my elective courses are related to methods of economic research on one hand, and financial mathematics on the other. Furthermore my extracurricular activities are closely linked to the fields of Economics and International Relations. Last year I served as an intern at the B6 Directorate for International Economic Organisations and Monetary Affairs and Compensations of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. During this period I was familiarised with the work and objectives of multiple economic organisations, with a main focus on the World Trade Organisation and Organisation of Economic Co-Operation & Development. I consider my participation in ELSA Summer School an outstanding opportunity to enrich my knowledge on yet another sub-topic of international economic relations, international investment. That having said, I am looking forward to meeting new people from diverse academic backgrounds and gaining in depth knowledge of various aspects and complexities of International Investment Law.

23

JULIA ISACHENKO

My name is Julia and I am from Belarus. I am 22 years old. I have gained a bachelor degree in international law at Belarusian State University and now I am studying for a masters degree at the same university. My interest in investment law is not random. My masterwork is dedicated to investment protection in international private law and I am also a part of the team in FDI MOOT 2019. I hope, that this summer school will show me new ideas and perspectives in this sphere of law, and in between the lectures, we will have a lot of fun as well.

FLORIAN HRIBERNIG

My name is Florian Hribernig and I am studying law since autumn 2016 at the Karl-Franzens-University in the beautiful city of Graz. In my leisure time I enjoy playing the piano, doing sports and - of course - travelling. Unfortunately I have never visited Athens, so I am very happy to be able to take part in this summer law school. I am looking forward to meeting lots of new people and experiencing an exciting week in Greece!

SOFIA TZORTZI

Sofia Tzortzi is a qualified lawyer and a political scientist, specialised in EU law and politics. She holds an LL.B. from the University of London, a Master's from the College of Europe and a Maîtrise from the Sorbonne, while she is also a PhD candidate at the University of Cagliari. Currently she is conducting research at the University of Cagliari and as an associate at the European Policy Centre of Serbia. She has previously worked in Brussels, Athens and Nicosia. A Greek national and native speaker, Sofia is fluent in English and in French and also speaks Italian and Spanish.

NICOLE ALVES

My name is Nicole Gaspar Alves and I'm 20 years old. I'm a third year law student in the Universidade de Coimbra, in Portugal. I am fluent in English, having earned a trip to Lithuania from my school for being the best English student, and I'm currently learning French. I have participated on numerous activities and conferences about law and recently got a internship in a Law firm. I have also volunteered in european programmes during the european elections.

ANAISA OLIVIERA

"My name is Anaísa Oliveira. I am a 21-year-old portuguese student at Law School of the University of Lisbon. I am currently in my last year of college and I wanted to experience something different. I love travelling and learning, so I joined the both and sign up at my first Summer Law School. My main areas of interest are Business and Commercial Law, so I decided to expand my horizons and explore the world of International Investment Law. After graduating, I would like to pursue a LL.M in Commercial Law. I have a passion for Law and I truly believe that it is what I'm going to do the rest of my life. I can speak English and Spanish, but I want to learn German too. Always with a book in my bag, I am an open-minded person, ready to meet new people. I can't wait to be part of this adventure!"

28

LUCIA ONOFRI

My name is Lucia Onofri, I am 21 years old from Italy. I am a second year student in Università degli Studi di Milano and I am currently enrolled in a Bachelor's Degree in Law. This summer I will also be an intern in an American Law firm located in Milano specialized in legal arbitration.

29

GIOVANNI CIRIELLO

I am a 2019 candidate for a Juris Doctor (J.D.), Combined LL.B. & M.Sc. from the University of Naples Federico II, with two great passions: entrepreneurship and politics. I love living and working in an international environment that allows you to experiment and enrich your skills, hence a dense and stimulating path that starts from volunteering and comes to student representation activities, first in high school and then at university. My experiences have helped me to develop an open-mind and creative approach to overcoming adversity, so I have a strong desire to face new challenges and improve my skills. During my journey, I realized that some people would have a relevant role in my life, so I believe in entrepreneurship, concreteness, and incredible potential that young people can express if listened to and advised by the right mentors. As a former scout, I believe in the teaching of Baden Powell: "if the road is not there, invent it!"

30

DAINIS PUDELIS

Dainis Pudelis is a lawyer at the State Chancellery of the Republic of Latvia. Together with his colleagues he is currently responsible for organizing representation of the State in investment disputes. He received his Master's degree from the University of Latvia and during his time at the University he was a real enthusiast of moot court competitions both national and international. He had the honour of being the President of ELSA Latvia from 2011 to 2013. When he is not digging through long and boring arbitral awards he likes to ride his bicycle, take photos and shoot a couple of videos once in a while. He is currently working (very slowly) on an article about the Achmea case.

31

NIELS LAENEN

I'm Niels Laenen, a 21 year old student from the Netherlands. I am currently in the 2nd year of my European Law School bachelor at Maastricht University (in the Netherlands). I have a particular interest in arbitration and (corporate) finance law, so this program seemed like a perfect fit for me. I'm excited to meet all of you and I'm looking forward to learn more about the topic at hand

32

DARIO VINCIGUERRA

My name is Dario Vinciguerra and I graduated last year with a Law degree from the University of Macerata. I work as a trainee lawyer in a law firm in the field of civil and commercial law and I will be able to take the bar exam in the end of 2019. My Erasmus experience in Mannheim, Germany, has represented a key point for my personal and academic growth: I was able to attend courses in the field of business law in a well-known University and to work as an intern in a local German law firm. As a result of this experience, I decided to write my thesis on the contractual agreements adopted by companies in order to undertake international investments and to attend, after my graduation, an executive master in Milan in "Corporate Legal Counsel". In the personal sphere I like to practice sports, travel, reading newspapers and to know people, especially in an international context. I'm really excited to be part of this ELSA Summer Law School, to discover Athens and the welcoming Greek culture.

33

DANIELE INNAMORATI

My name is Daniele Innamorati, I am 26 years old. I have graduated last year with a law degree from the University of Macerata, Italy. Currently, I am working as a trainee lawyer while attending an LLM on Environmental Law at the University of Rome "La Sapienza". It was the LLM that sparked my interest in the topic of the ELSA law school, as I got in-depth insights on International Investment Law-related matters while I was addressing cross-national investments in the field of renewable energies. Also, I consider myself an internationally-minded person and I am quite used to work with people from different backgrounds and cultures. In this regard, I spent 10 months as an exchange student in Lund University, Sweden and I then went back there for three more months to work as an intern at the Embassy of Italy in Stockholm, as a policy analyst. I love travelling, hiking, reading, and practising every kind of open-air sport (skiing, biking, running) but also going to concerts and discovering new music; I am a nature-lover and I love animals (especially dogs). I look forward to discovering the greek culture and meeting you all!

34

EMANUELE MARIO ZAVANELLA

I'm Emanuele Zavanella, currently in my final year of bachelor degree in Political Science and International Relations in Pisa, enrolled in Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies. Besides my field of study, I have a strong interest in music, playing clarinet and guitar and learning music theory, harmony and composition. I used to play tennis for a couple of years and basketball for five years. I spent a semester in Saint Petersburg to improve my language skill and I'm looking forward to learning German, since I also enjoy studying languages. I hope to enter the diplomatic career or to work in the field of international law: cannot wait to learn about investment law and meet new people!

MARTA MORENO SANCHEZ

My name is Marta, I am 21 years old and I am currently in fourth year of Law at the University of Salamanca, Spain. I have taken lessons in tax law and political economy but never in investment law, so I think this summer school is going to be the perfect way for me to learn more about this field of law. Also, I am really interested in international relations and international law, so I think that all the knowledge that I will acquire in ELSA Athens it's going to be useful in my future as a lawyer. I love learning languages, traveling and meeting people from different cultures. Because of that I am really excited to be part in ELSA Athens and I am looking forward to meet the rest of participants."

35

MICOL SACCON

Micol Saccon is an Italian law student from the University of Trento. After her Erasmus year in the Netherlands, she has had the opportunity to deepen her knowledge about Comparative Private Law and International Law. However, International Investment Law it is not a subject frequently studied in universities. Thus she is thus very excited about this week in Greece and about meeting new people.

38

MOUSSAS & PARTNERS

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Moussas and Partners is a multidisciplinary law practice based in Athens, Greece. The Firm accompanies its clients, in advisory as well as in litigation, in a wide spectrum of legal fields guaranteeing therefore consistency in the proposed solutions and complete mastery of the consequences of the decisions taken. The Firm has become widely acknowledged for its permanent and sustained growth in time, as well as to the prestige and quality of its professionals. Accredited for delivering the best outcome in dispute resolution, the Firm has a distinguished record in acting for clients from a variety of industries and countries, before local courts as well as in international and local arbitration.

With more than 30 years of experience and combative and successful activity in the legal scene, the Firm's team is very competent, strong, pragmatic and commercially minded with a remarkable academic background, deep knowledge and a huge track record. The team has gained extensive expertise in the management of particularly sophisticated extraordinary transactions and in operating in contractual and contentious fields wherever an in-depth knowledge of both Greek and foreign legal systems is required and has significant experience in its areas of practice.

Since its inception, Moussas and Partners has a long history engaging in multidisciplinary real estate legal matters – from luxury residential developments to commercial and industrial properties. Over the past decade, the Firm has redoubled its strategic focus on the practice of real estate law covering a highly complex set of activities sales and acquisitions, title, land use, environmental, development, leasing, finance, joint ventures, restructuring and litigation. The Firm has also been involved in due diligence of various types of real properties in Greece (e.g. residential premises, commercial properties, retail premises, shopping centers, hotels and holiday resorts, industrial and office buildings) and has assisted in deal structuring, negotiations and documentation for listed developer conglomerates, local and international private investors, private equity funds, real estate investment trusts and financial institutions.

The Firm has grown a culture in the energy area and has developed a solid client portfolio of representation in disputes arising from EPC contracts. It is known among peers and players of the energy market for successfully handling complex energy related matters and for advising some of the biggest energy consumers in Greece both in commercial and regulatory matters of the energy sector, following the progressive deregulation of energy in the Greek market. The team regularly advises and represents key stakeholders of the Greek energy market and the services are highly regarded not only because of the in-depth understanding of the regulatory regime, which touches upon various areas of law, such as environmental, administrative, public procurement and EU competition, but also for the team's commercial expertise in dealing with day to day corporate maintenance or complex due diligence processes.

The team's experience includes further successfully representing clients in disputes arising from M&A, shareholders' agreements and different types of commercial agreements, such as agency and distributorship, as well as from corporate obligations, directors' liabilities and capital markets regulatory compliance. The Firm is also highly experienced in the field of banking, finance and securities law, insolvency, restructuring and employment law.

The team has experience defending manufacturers, distributors, and dealers of products facing strict liability or negligence actions relating to alleged design or manufacturing defects. In addition to its strong litigation experience, the firm provides product liability counselling to promote product safety and minimize future product liability exposure.

Moussas and Partners has also developed a strong practice in the field of international arbitration. The Firm provides the highest quality legal representation for complex commercial, constructor and investor-State arbitrations, combining excellence, rigour, experience and an outstanding track record in order to offer exceptional value to its clients. The Firm's procedural knowledge, appreciation for international business practices, and strong trial skills combine to make the firm the first choice of Mytilineos Group, a key market player in energy and constructions through a series of arbitration cases. Throughout the years the team has built up its experience before various arbitral tribunals (ICC and UNCITRAL) and hold a strong track record of successful representation. A recent highlight of the firm's track record is the successful representation of Mytilineos Holdings in a bilateral investment treaty dispute against Serbia under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

The Firm collaborates with other professional firms and financial advisors of high standing in order to ensure optimal assistance even in cross-border transactions and maintain the high professional quality necessary in a demanding and increasingly sophisticated market.

The Firm's culture is a strong differentiator that enables it to stand out from the rest of the market. Competence, trust and a deep understanding of the industry are the cornerstones of a good client relationship. Indeed, Moussas and Partners stands for expertise and commitment. The Firm offers unparalleled client service and we constantly strive to exceed our clients' expectations. The Firm thrives in the realm of complexity and consistently develop unique strategies and practical solutions to meet our clients' needs. This is what Moussas and Partners understands as full service: fresh, innovative thinking combined with proven experience and efficiency.

Moussas and Partners regularly contributes exclusive chapters and articles in high profile international legal guides such as Global Arbitration Review (GAR), Lexology – Getting The Deal Through, Chambers, Legal 500 Guides as well as in local legal reviews.

Moussas and Partners and the Firm's US educated founder Nicholas Moussas, have been ranked in distinguished listings such as Chambers & Partners, the Legal 500 and the IFLR 1000.

Alexiou – Kosmopoulos is an Athens-based independent law firm with a long history and an international attitude.

Our firm and several of its partners have been consistently recognized as market leaders in their respective fields of expertise, which include Real Estate, M&A, Banking and Finance and Dispute Resolution in the Greek market.

Our choice to position ourselves as an optimally-sized outfit, best suits our aspiration to integrate the best of both worlds. The boutique firm concept with unparalleled depth of expertise, bespoke service and rigorous partner supervision spotlights the approach. We currently offer the full-service model of synergies across complementary practices, catering for the requirements of bigger, modern-day businesses and the challenges of ever more complex transactions.

Our track record of achievements serves to showcase the merits of our unique approach. We take professional pride in the fact that such achievements match or exceed the "personal bests" of bigger firms at various levels.

We always keep in our sight what each client values most. Our lawyers are personable and decisive, and prefer to keep a low profile. However, we do not blink when challenged in the courtroom or the boardroom, and when dealing with critical, high-stakes matters.

Our work philosophy is underlined by an unflinching commitment to identify and deliver the best realizable total solution; characterized by fundamental honesty, straight talking and a constructive and inclusive teamwork approach. Our hallmark is developing accountable, independent and value-adding professional personalities. To accomplish all of this, we concentrate on building versatile teams that match client needs and a hierarchy based on merit, respect and aspirations for future growth.

With offices in Athens and Thessaloniki, our multi-disciplinary teams set the standards for commercially-aware, responsive service in the most complex and sophisticated legal issues. KG pioneered in the Greek market by becoming ISO certified since 2006 and still remains one of a handful of ISO 9001 certified law firms in Greece.

For more than 50 years KG has been the preferred choice for US and European international law firms seeking local legal counsel in Greece capable for delivering legal services at the most demanding international standards of professional quality and client service. We continue to develop and sustain multi- generational relationships with high-profile partners in major international and global law firms, as well as the exchange of expertise and intellectual capital that only such enduring relationships can produce.

Our partners and lawyers are prominent participants in international practice law institutions and networks, such as the International Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the Antitrust Alliance, the Employment Law Alliance, the European Employment Lawyers Association, the International Fiscal Association, etc. and frequently publish in major international journals and books.

KG is a founding member of South East Europe Legal Group (SEE Legal) – www.seelegal.org, a regional alliance of major law firms from 12 countries in South East Europe, established in 2003. Working together on cross border transactions, SEE Legal is the largest local legal team in South East Europe, with more than 450 lawyers organized in cross - jurisdictional practice groups.

Tsibanoulis & Partners Law Firm is one of the leading Greek law firms specializing in banking and capital markets. Our reputation is founded on our long experience advising credit and financial institutions on all aspects of the banking and finance business and our unique expertise in the application of the national, European and trans-national regulatory frameworks.

We advise regularly the Greek government as well as foreign governments, national and foreign financial regulatory authorities, top tier banks and investment firms, multinational corporations, listed companies and high net-worth individuals. Tsibanoulis & Partners, also, provides ground breaking advice and clear legal solutions on complex projects. Being a member of a leading international independent law firms' network, our firm works regularly with multinational legal teams on cross-border transactions and can offer its clients immediate access to multi-jurisdictional advice of the highest quality.

Our team of creative and dedicated legal practitioners works together to understand and respond effectively to all kind of legal problems our clients face. What differentiates us from our competitors is how we combine academic and business experience.

We have worked with major corporations, large Greek and foreign banks and investment firms, the Greek State and many public authorities providing ground breaking advice, clear legal solutions. In view of the above, our lawyers are involved in many of the most influential commercial ventures and are known for providing clients with pioneering solutions to the toughest legal challenges. Continuity of service and personal contact is the cornerstone of our offer. Our advice reflects both the reality of clients' business environments and their need for timely and realistic solutions. We believe that our wealth of experience in, and commitment to, our chosen fields of practice is second to none.

We offer our clients expert legal knowledge coupled with business acumen. This allows us to meet the client's business objectives by providing commercial solutions based on sound and innovative legal advice rather than just advising on the law.

NOMIKI BIBLIOTHIKI was founded in 1977 by Harry and Sophia Karatza, whose vision was to create a model publishing house specializing in the various fields of law and meeting the pressing needs of legal professionals for accurate and constantly updated information.

Nowadays, with over 120 employees, in-house publishing creative and production department, dynamic presence in professional training and the legal technologies sector, NOMIKI BIBLIOTHIKI now in its second family generation, holds a leading position in the field of scholarly publications, specialized services for legal professionals and businesses in both the public and private sector, as well as educational institutions in Greece and Cyprus.
